

AGENDA

iJOBS Site Visit at the Profeta Center (NJII)

March 19, 12-3pm

12-1pm: Formal company presentations at presentation stage (first floor)

- 12-12:05: Welcome & Intro of Michael Johnson – Michael van Ter Sluis
- 12:05-12:15: Overview of NJII & the Profeta Center – Michael Johnson
- 12:15-12:25: Company presentation 1 – HAX, Ji Ke
 - What are some success factors you see in early-stage biotech companies?
- 12:25-12:35: Company presentation 2 – Delphine Diagnostics Inc, Andy Bala
 - What can a grad student or postdoc be doing while they are still in academia in order to prepare to be an entrepreneur?
- 12:35-12:45: Company presentation 3 – Biocentriq, Chat De Silva
 - What are the pros and cons of being an employee in a startup vs big pharma?
- 12:45-12:55: Company presentation 4 – OculoMotor Technologies, Chang Yaramothu
 - How do you interact with VC companies and pitch to them?
- 12:55-1:05: Company presentation 5 – Portable Diagnostic Systems, Glennon Simmons
 - How did you know if your idea was going to launch and how do you deal with the uncertainty of being an entrepreneur?

1:05-2:00pm: Lunch and networking in cafe area

2:00-3:00pm: Tours of building and lab space (led by Yvonne Drakes)

- Waves of 5-8 people each
- Each tour lasting approximately 15 minutes