CONVOCATION

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY
School of Graduate Studies

Dear Graduates,

On behalf of the School of Graduate Studies and Rutgers University, I congratulate you on your academic achievements.

Today, with your families, friends, and guests in attendance, we celebrate your dedication and commitment to your chosen fields. You will contribute, as leaders, in academe, government, industry, private and non-profit organizations around the world.

You are a community of scholars that represent more than 100 countries! The knowledge you gained here at Rutgers will influence people from around the globe in addressing problems, creating new knowledge, and making the world a better place. You have made Rutgers a better place as a result of your membership in our university community.

As you embark on your careers, please remember that you will always be a part of the School of Graduate Studies and Rutgers family. Go out into the world and do good and make us proud!

Wishing you well,

NATIONAL ANTHEM

O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd
at the twilight's last gleaming,

Whose broad stripes and bright stars
through the perilous fight O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming?

And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there,

O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
